Towards the "Other America": Anti-Racist Resources for White People Taking Action for Black Lives Matter

This resource is a call to action to end white silence and a manual on how to do it. In addition to his own soul-searching essays and practical organizing advice in his "notes to activists," Chris Crass lifts up the voices of longtime white anti-racist leaders organizing in white communities for Black Lives Matter. The free paperback version from Chalice Press is currently out of stock, but you may sign-up to receive a free PDF version at: <https://chalicepress.com/products/towards-the-other-america>.

Resources for Children:

The ABCs of Diversity: Helping Kids (and Ourselves!) Embrace Our Differences

Written by Carolyn B. Helsel and Y. Joy Harris-Smith, two mothers and educators - one black, one white - The ABCs of Diversity equips parents, teachers, and community leaders to address children of all ages on complicated topics of race, gender, class, religion, political affiliation, ability, nationality, and sexual orientation. The authors employ three sets of ABCs throughout the book to help guide the conversations: our automatic ABCs; the ABCs of intentional engagement; and the ABCs of a more just society.
