Whom do we serve?

- New Hampshire immigrants and refugees in crisis
- New Hampshire residents who want to welcome and open doors for immigrants and refugees
- Anyone seeking a better understanding of immigrant and refugee issues

Immigrant and refugee concerns

- Legal issues
- Lack of information about U.S. laws
- Vulnerability to detention or deportation
- Special legal concerns for teens and children
- Racial/ethnic profiling or discrimination
- Accessing support during detention
- Isolation from family and friends during detention
- Separation trauma for parents and children
- Accessing financial support to cover any required bond to achieve freedom from detention
- Loss of family income following deportation
- Anti-immigrant legislation

What we do

- Support immigrants and refugees in our community
- Provide opportunities for immigrant stories
- Educate congregations and others
- Advocate for legislation supporting immigrants
- Seek short-term and long-term host homes for asylum-seekers released from detention
- Connect immigrants with legal assistance
- Provide volunteer support services
- Provide detention and post detention support and visitation
- Raise funds to bond eligible immigrants out of detention
